EXPERIENCE

Project Manager Intern

2026

Feniex Industries · Austin, TX

- Supported cross-functional projects at an American manufacturer of emergency-vehicle lighting, sirens and controllers, working with engineering, production and sales teams.
- Maintained project schedules and status trackers, following up on open items so deadlines and owners stayed visible.
- Helped turn project and operations steps into clear, step-by-step process documentation.
- Used AI tools, including Claude, to organize notes, draft updates and speed up routine documentation.

REFERENCE

“Tyler won two different jumps at one championship, which takes more planning than people see. He brought that organized, competitive edge to Feniex. He hates finishing second, in anything, and that is the standard I want on my team.”

Hamza Deyaf, Founder & CEO, Feniex Industries
